IN RE: AMENDMENT TO RULE 31, SECTION 2(b),
RULES OF THE TENNESSEE SUPREME COURT

---

ORDER

Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 31 established the Alternative Dispute Resolution Commission (“ADR Commission”) and governs the alternative dispute resolution proceedings specified in the rule. The ADR Commission proposes amending Tenn. Sup. Ct. R. 31, § 2(b) (definition of “Baccalaureate degree” and “graduate degree”) as follows (new language indicated by underscoring):

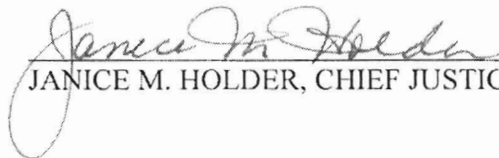

(b) “Baccalaureate degree” and “graduate degree” are only those degrees awarded by an institution of higher education accredited by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education (CHEA) and approved or listed by the United States Department of Education as a recognized accrediting agency. A law degree from an educational institution recognized by the Tennessee Board of Law Examiners for the purpose of allowing its graduates to be eligible to take the Tennessee bar examination shall be deemed a graduate degree for purposes of this rule.

The Court hereby publishes the proposed amendment for public comment and solicits written comments from judges, lawyers, bar organizations, members of the public, and any other interested parties. The deadline for submitting written comments is Monday, March 2, 2009. Written comments should be addressed to:
